Hi guys,

looks as I am following the herd....again.

Any chance I could have a service manual as well? Please!

Cheers

Thanks. As for the email, this is the one I use when I suspect it will get spammed. Needless to say it has been my spam decoy for the last couple of years.

Why not make a rule here... the latest one to request it has to send it to the next...?

Gyuri: you have PM

Edit: I suppose this doc is free from copyright for personnal use, right ?

@ZM,
yes it makes really fun with the D1, tanks!

@Danger Mouse,
yes to Hoffman and the construction of my D1 has been a long time ago (think it was around 2009/2010). i don't know if he is still in business.
All my newer tranforators comes now from Müller / Rondo.
