

This is the first experimental picking switch assembly.

The chisel faced soft steel pole piece is backed by a $\varnothing.188 \times .500$ Alnico magnet, inside the body of the Delrin coil housing.

The diameter of the music wire was determined by the average diameter of six medium gage flat top guitar strings,

The height of the music wire above the Delrin base was determined by the average tension of the same set of strings.

Prescott, Arizona, 12-09-2023